Visited the Country.

In company with Valentine's genial postmaster, W. E. Haley, the editor of this paper took a twenty-five mile drive up the Minnechaduza last Saturday, returning by way of the "table." We visited Crookston, and were surprised at the amount of business done what we ask only $7.00, then trolled by F. H. Baumgartel and E. McDonald, the latter having a fine two-story stone building. From Crookston we went west to Hoffman's, is visiting friends in the city this your privilege to go where it and returning camped on the Minne- week. ner. #### It's a Shame.

What would the State Fair do if the country newspapers would refuse to support it, even as the fair managers refuse to support the newspapers? That abomination, the State Fair Bulletin, an imitation patent medicine journal which is not dignified enough to pass through the mails as second class matter but has to have a vulgar, blue, 1-cent postage stamp stuck on each wrapper, is out again. We, like others, chucked it to one side and doubtless would not have known what its nature was had not a
